

Pizza party for the homeless is tonight at Portland Rescue Mission

By Sarah Friesen, The Oregonian

June 19, 2009, 3:19PM

"Pizza for the Hungry: A Smile Brings Hope," a project of New York-based not-for-profit eyeBLINK, will host a pizza party for homeless guests at the Portland Rescue Mission at 6 tonight.

This is the third year eyeBLINK has provided pizza parties for the homeless. This year, it will host 40 pizza parties in 26 states. The organization's goal is to bring food, entertainment and joy to shelters and missions throughout the United States.

Portland Rescue Mission serves more than 350 hot meals 365 days a year to homeless men, women and children. It always needs donations and volunteers.

-- Susan Green; susangreen@news.oregonian.com